Synopsis of Scenes of “Billy”

ACT I

Upper Deck Amidship S. S. “Florida”; Morning

ACT II

The Same; Afternoon

ACT III

The Same; Daybreak of the Following Morning

“Billy”==An Epitome

Billy Hargrave, Transylvania's star quarter-back, was severely injured in the final game of the season. Various reports about his injuries have been spread abroad; but he has not been seen since the game.

At the opening of the play, we find Mrs. Sloane and her daughter Beatrice upon the deck of the S. S. “Florida”. Also, there is Sam Eustace, suitor to Beatrice, who is going South “on business”, but is delighted to offer his services to the two ladies. We soon learn that Billy Hargrave, with his sister Alice, is also sailing on the “Florida”. It is hoped that the trip will restore his health, and give him an opportunity to become expert in the use of his new false teeth,—the embarrassing result of his recent accident. The dialogues which follow make it apparent that Hargrave, too, is in love with Beatrice, and that there is a long-standing jealousy between him and the blustering Eustace. Alice Hargrave learns that Sam Eustace is pressing his suit with some degree of success. Billy, alarmed at the report, resolves to propose at the earliest opportunity. When the opportunity does come, he feels that it is his duty to tell Beatrice of his teeth. While he is explaining, he is jostled by a passing steward. The set of teeth is knocked from his mouth. Beatrice mistakes his embarrassment and agonized gesticulations for shame which he feels at admitting some disgrace in his life. In anger she leaves the deck. In the confusion, the teeth are lost.

Hargrave, deprived of his teeth, is helpless. He cannot speak a word of explanation to the outraged Beatrice. He cannot speak a word in defence against the insults which Eustace heaps upon him, or against the scandal which his rival attaches to his name. Sam Eustace now continues his courtship. He is already favored by Mrs. Sloane, and is winning the favor of Beatrice. Meanwhile Billy madly searches for the teeth, muttering unintelligible orders to those about him.

Early the following morning, while Billy is searching the deck, he finds, in the window of a stateroom, a glass containing another set of teeth. He steals it. It later develops that the teeth are Mrs. Sloane's. Her plight now is no less than was Billy's.

But now a set of teeth have been found upon the deck of the ship. They are to be auctioned off for the benefit of charity. Mrs. Sloane, thinking they are hers, requests Sam Eustace to bid in her behalf. Billy, knowing they are his, instructs his sister to bid for him. An exciting auction follows. At last they are sold to Billy at an exorbitant price. Billy then sends Mrs. Sloane's own set to her “with Mr. Hargrave's compliments”.

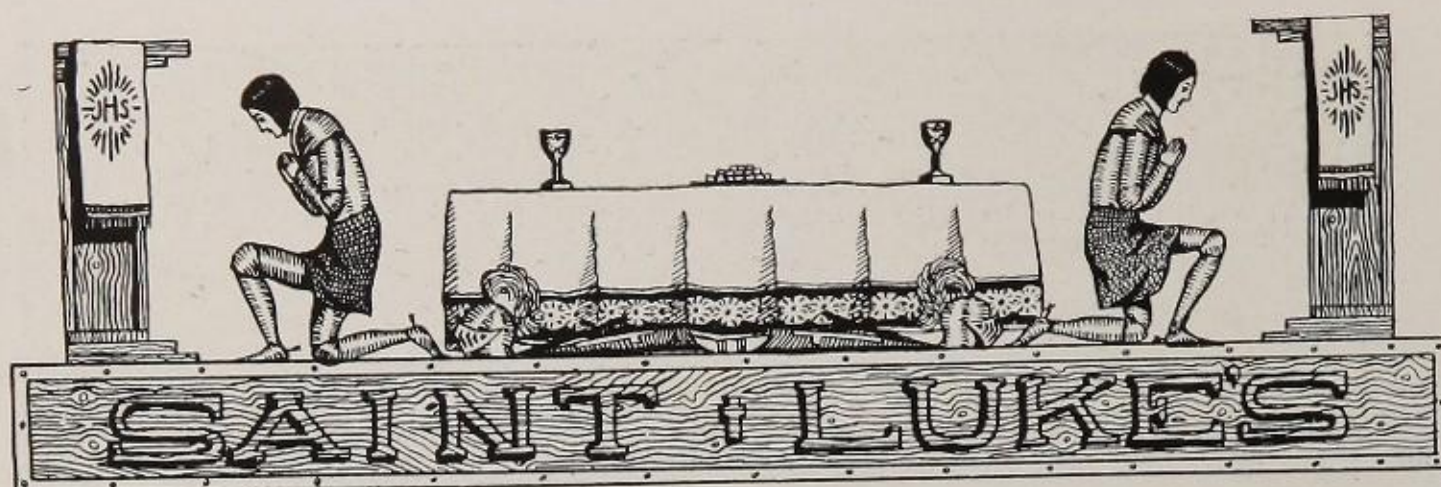

As the curtain falls, the audience finds satisfaction in seeing Billy's teeth in their proper place, and his arms about Beatrice.

THE GUN CLUB

Societies, 1915-16

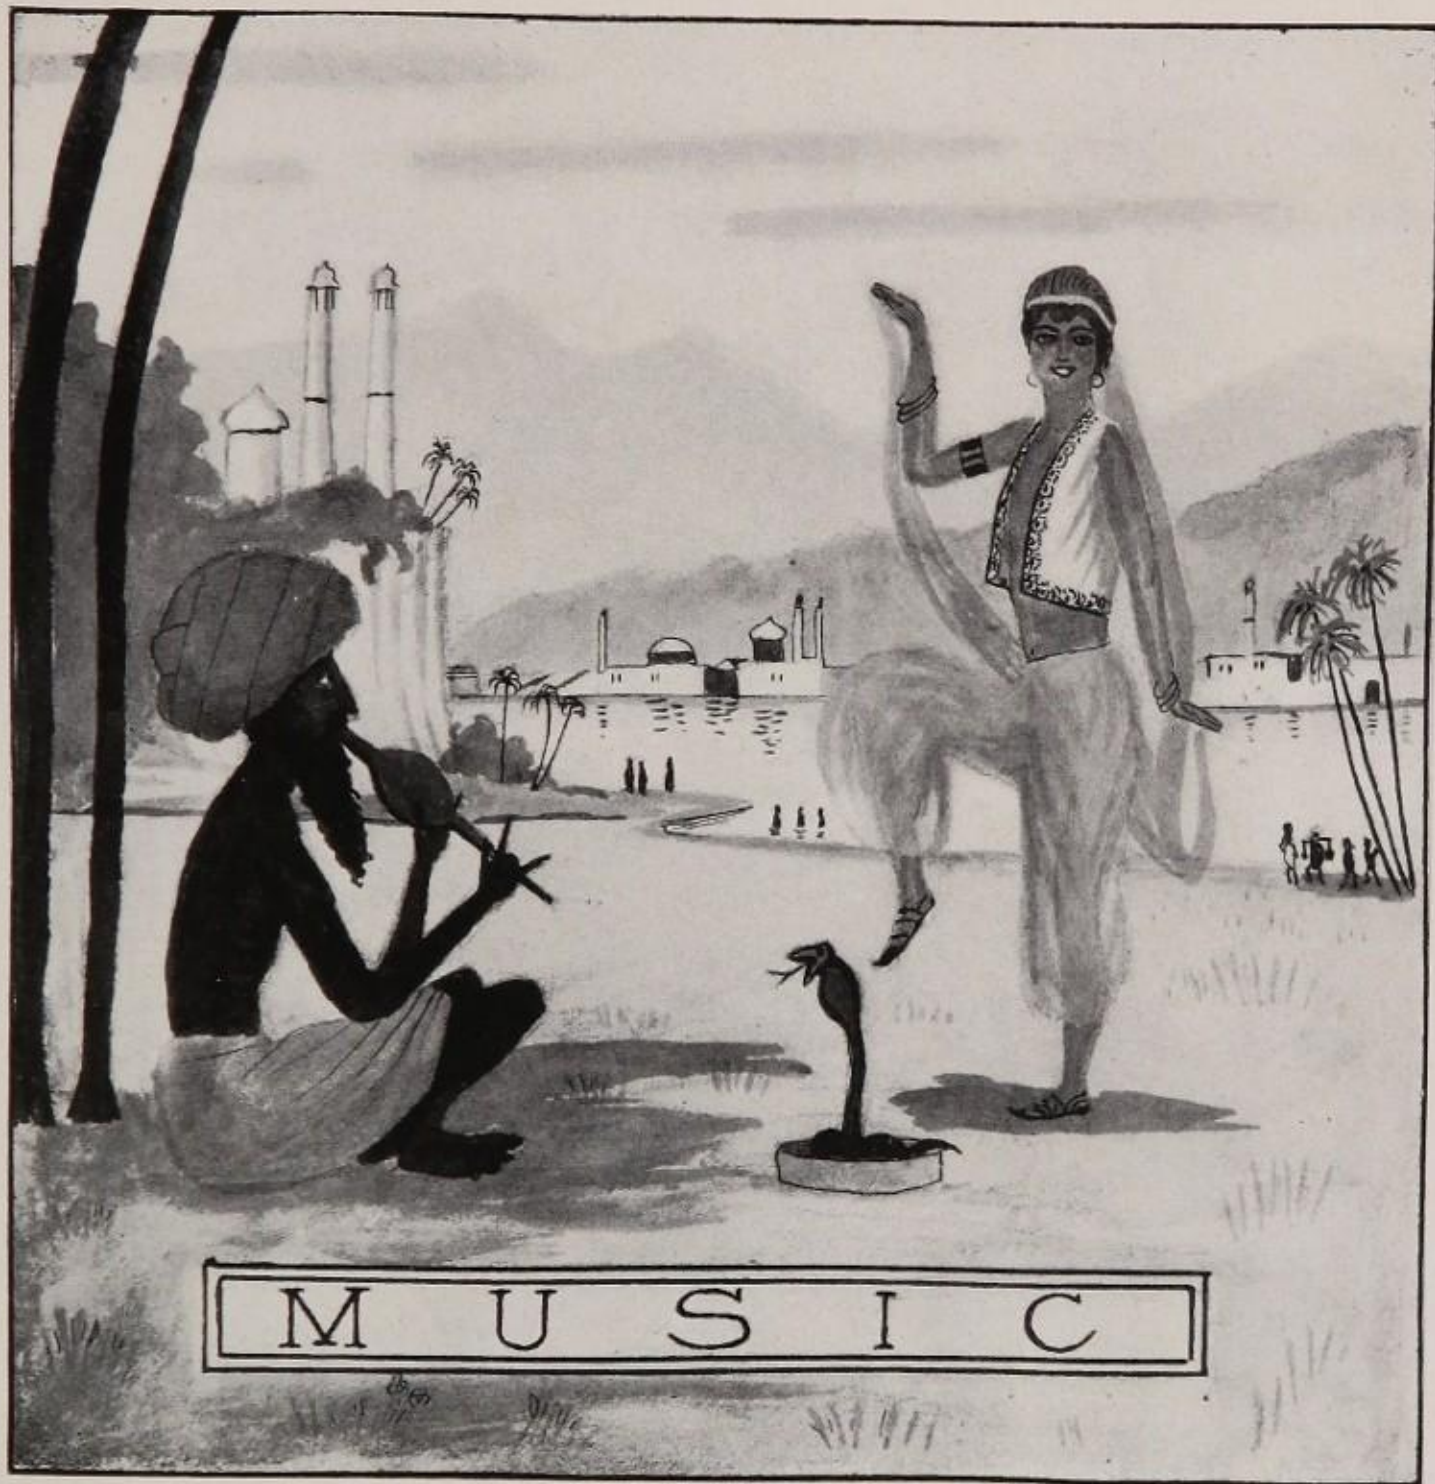

The officers of the Saint Luke's Society deserve the gratitude of the school at large. Their work has been done conscientiously, and has extended its influence outside the chapel walls. There may have been years in which the meetings were larger, but we do not know of any in which the society has been more effective.

The Dramatic Association's annual play was "Billy", a farce in three acts, by George Cameron. The unexpected loss of the Society's President, the leading man of last year's successful play, was a great handicap. However, the part was well filled, and the production as a whole was pronounced a success. Much credit is due Mr. Roy, who so ably coached the cast.

The literary Societies were, as usual, reorganized. The old Agora and Forum, as separate societies, were dissolved. The Hotchkiss Union, consisting of the Agora and Forum camps, was formed. The annual Literary Contest took place in December. Aside from this, the entire work was in debating. Under the direction of Mr. Spencer, the Groton-Middlesex system was introduced here. This involves faculty supervision in matters of delivery, but demands from the debaters independent preparation on short notice. A debate, under this system, was scheduled with Taft; but was cancelled on account of an epidemic at that school. Although the work of the year was not tested in an inter-school debate, progress has been made. It is hoped that this work will be continued.

The members of the Wagner Verein, directed by Dr. Robinson, made a thorough study of "Die Walkurie" and "Die Meistersinger". In March they made the annual trip to New York, where they enjoyed an excellent production of "Die Meistersinger".

Meetings of the Musical Arts Society were held once each week, commencing shortly after Thanksgiving. "La Tosca" was studied first; later, Carmen. The trip to New York, which concluded a very interesting season, was much enjoyed by all.

THE HOTCHKISS ORCHESTRA

Music, 1915-16

The work of the Music department has moved along the same lines as last year, with special emphasis upon two points of progress: the piano school and the musical clubs.

The piano work has been broadened to meet the demands of those who wish to acquire the ability to play only the so-called "popular" music. The result has been gratifying in many cases. The work in the more serious music, under Mr. Warwick, has brought excellent results.

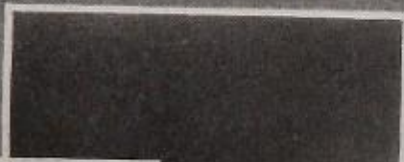

An attempt to equalize the coaching of the musical clubs had a most gratifying effect, and fully proved the worth of the plan and the advisability of its continuance. All three clubs worked hard, and undoubtedly a new high standard was set.

The choir has done consistent work, holding its own with choirs of past years.

The orchestra deserves the highest praise. Although this is the hardest working organization in the department, if not in the school, the members are rewarded by no medals or trip to New York. However, the experience, which at the time some do not appreciate, is invaluable. May the orchestra continue to hold its important position in the music of the school!

The Wagner Verein, conducted by Dr. Robinson, and the Musical Arts, under Mr. Hancock, held important positions as societies for the educational and cultural study of grand opera.

Sunday recitals of organ, voice, and 'cello music were instituted this year, and the pleasure afforded by them most certainly should warrant the continuance of the custom.

Mr. Barrs Criticizes Book

Mischianza boards are too modest. They do not realize that the place for such a record is on the shelves of a bookcase, and so we have the twentieth volume bound in limp, green suede—pretty to look at, but a poor protector of the contents.

Mechanically, this is a good number, thanks to the work of printers and illustrators with pen and camera. The portrait of Loring Sargent, to whose memory the volume is fittingly dedicated, would alone make the book valuable to those who knew and loved him.

FOOTBALL SQUAD GIVEN DINNER

Last Saturday evening the football team and a number of substitutes, fifteen players in all, Mr. and Mrs. Monahan and Mr. and Mrs. Banks were given a very elaborate dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Buehler at their home. The members of the squad who attended this enjoyable event were: Hixon (captain), Sidenberg, J. P. Cooke, Tilson, Lasell, D. W. Blakeslee, Burtt, Lindblade, E. K. Simpson, W. F. Jaffray, N. J. Smith, Manny, Peck, Kelsey, and C. D. Smith. F. B. Jaffray, Hoyt, Henry, and Manager Hemmaway were unable to attend.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

New York Well Represented

The total enrollment of the school is at present 262. New York State with 78 representatives has the largest delegation, while Connecticut is second with 43. The complete list of the other states is as follows: Illinois, 22; Minnesota, 17; Massachusetts, 16; Pennsylvania, 15; New Jersey, 12; Ohio, 7; California, 6; Missouri and Wisconsin, 5 each; Colorado, 4; Iowa, Tennessee, Texas, and Vermont, 3 each; Georgia, Michigan, Oregon, Virginia, 2 each; Indiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Rhode Island, and South Carolina, 1 each. The complete list of territories and foreign countries represented is as follows: Hawaii and China, 2 each; Egypt and Canada, 1 each.

CHAPEL WINDOW DEDICATED

In Memory of Loring Sargent

The Sargent Memorial Window was dedicated last Sunday morning. This new window, placed in the Chapel during the summer, is the parting gift of the members of the class of 1915. It is given in memory of their classmate, Loring Matt Sargent, who died two years ago. Dr. Buehler made some brief remarks in which he spoke of Sargent's frank, open character, of his loyalty to his school, of the sunny smile he wore for everyone as he went unflinchingly about his duties; and of the honest, generous memory he has left to those who knew him intimately. Then a short dedication service was read.

The window was made at a cost of $600. E. Swift was chairman of the gift committee.

DR. BUEHLER HONORED

Dr. Buehler has been elected Vice-President of the National Association of Biblical Instructors in American Colleges and Secondary Schools.

WHAT WE EAT

Interesting Kitchen Statistics

The following interesting facts regarding the food which we consume each day in the school dining room are furnished through the courtesy of the Housekeeping Department.

Every morning when Shredded Wheat Biscuits are served, an average of 440 are consumed while 27 boxes of Corn Flakes and a like number of Puffed Wheat are used on the days that we enjoy these cereals. Even so this does not allow for the feeding of the whole school, as many eat hot cereal. It is hard to realize that 350 lbs. of steak or that

HOTCHKISS RECEIVES THREE HIGHMARKS IN COLLEGE EXAMINATIONS

Hotchkiss received three of the highest ratings in the June College entrance exams. Of the seventeen hundred and thirty four papers read in English I, Evans Woollen, '16, received the highest mark, 96.

P. B. Stephan, '16, divided the highest mark, 98, in Xenophon with another contestant.

In Algebra A of the 805 candidates, S. J. Leary, '17, was one of thirteen to receive the distinction of receiving 100. In no subject except mathematics did more than two candidates tie for highest honors.

UNION DEBATING CAMPS

The members of the Hotchkiss Union have been divided into the following five groups supervised by the masters indicated. Div. I: Mr. Cherry; Gray, A. S. van Santvoord, Pharis, Schauwecker, Fowle, Debevoise, Bullock, Blum, Knight, Wilcox. Div. II: Mr. Hering; E. Driscoll, D. Driscoll, Hadden, Hamline, Hinks, Luce, Marshall, Stephan, Sudler, Woollen. Div. III: Mr. Jefferson; Aisen, Bartt, Clay, McClenahan, Larson, S. R. Lasher, Trowbridge, van Bernuth, Anderson, Clarke. MONDAY A HOLIDAY

Gardner Murphy Wins Important Prizes

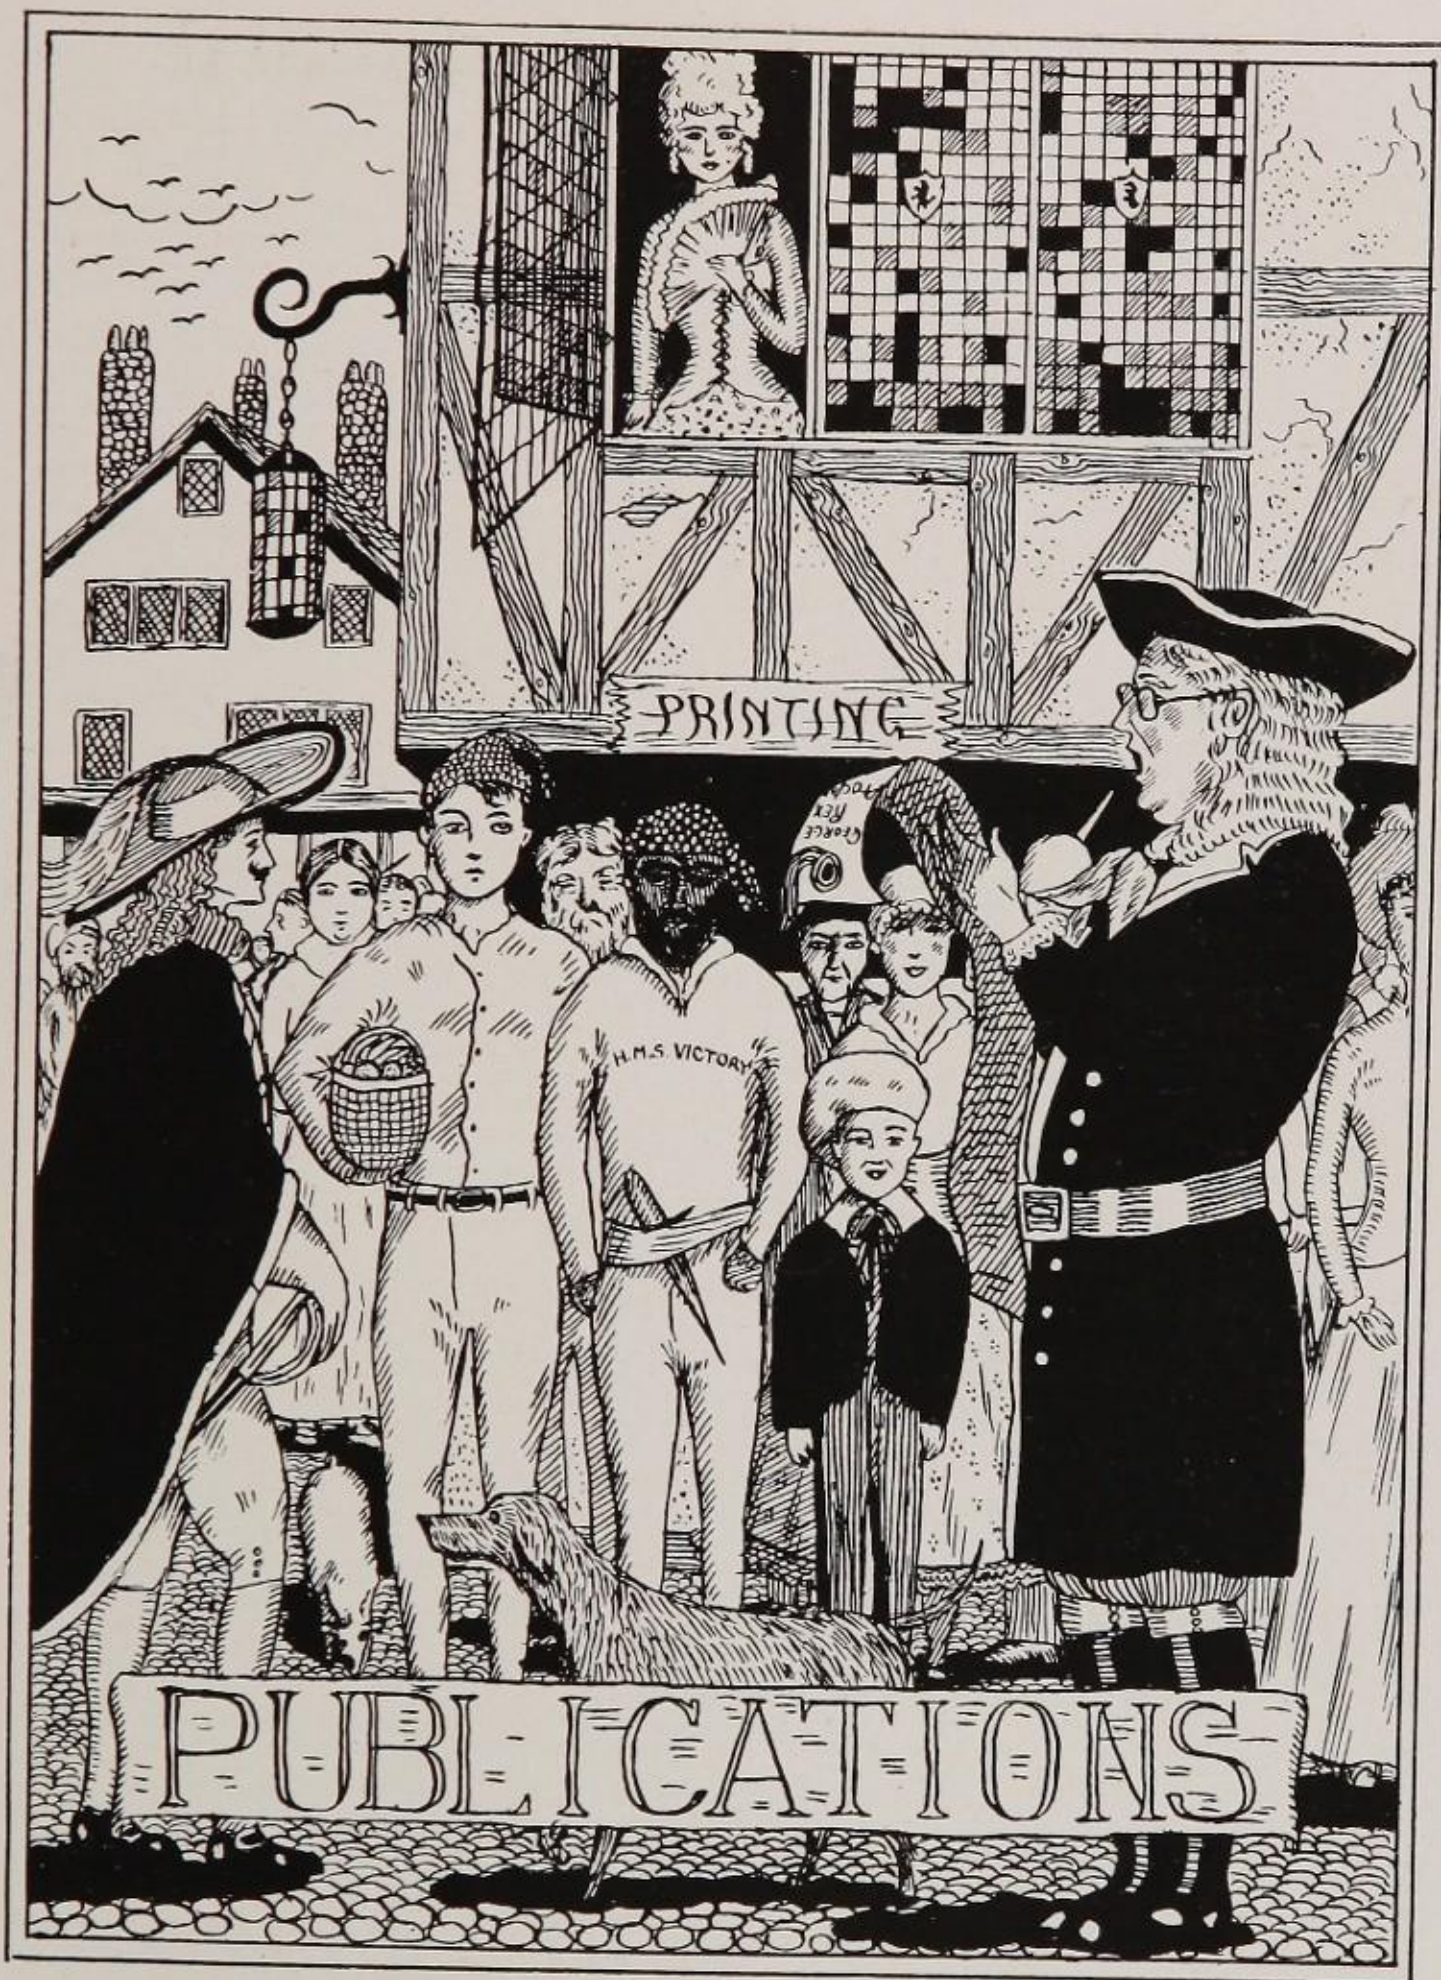

A holiday was given to the school on Monday, October 11th in honor of Gardner Murphy, '12, who earned the holiday for the school by taking the first Winthrop prize at Yale College last June. This prize of $200 is given "for the most thorough acquaintance with the Greek and Latin poets", particular attention being paid to elegance of scholarship and appreciation of the spirit of the poetry, as shown by special examination. The second prize was taken by Joseph Bolton of the Bolton School, New Haven.

Gardner Murphy, who has previously won holidays for his old school, also received last June the second prize from the Thacher Memorial Fund for extemporaneous debate. The first Thacher prize was won by a boy from Phillips Academy, Exeter.

Review of 1915 Football Season

The 1915 football season opened upon a seemingly bright prospect of turning out a team which would make a good season's record, and which would wind up the season by winning the Hill game, the final test of every Hotchkiss team.

Three men, Hixon, Sidenberg, and Blakeslee, returned from the victorious team of 1914, and ten men returned from 1914's second team, and it was these men, naturally, who formed the nucleus for this year's team.

The season was opened on Sept. 26th by a game with the New Haven High School, which the team won by the safe margin of 46 to 0. The following Saturday the Hartford High was beaten 25 to 0, and it was in this game that it was seen that, in contrast to last year, the backfield was likely to cause trouble and might be weak, while the line seemed to be unusually strong. Captain Hixon, a veteran of three years, at full back, was a consistent ground gainer, and a power on the defense, but as yet, he was the only man in the backfield who could be relied upon.

The first defeat of the season was handed out by Dean Academy on the following Saturday by the score of 15 to 6. The game was marked by the excellent interference of the visiting team, and their ability to gain on end runs; and by the miserably poor tackling of the home team, and the inability of the backfield to break up Dean's forward-passes.

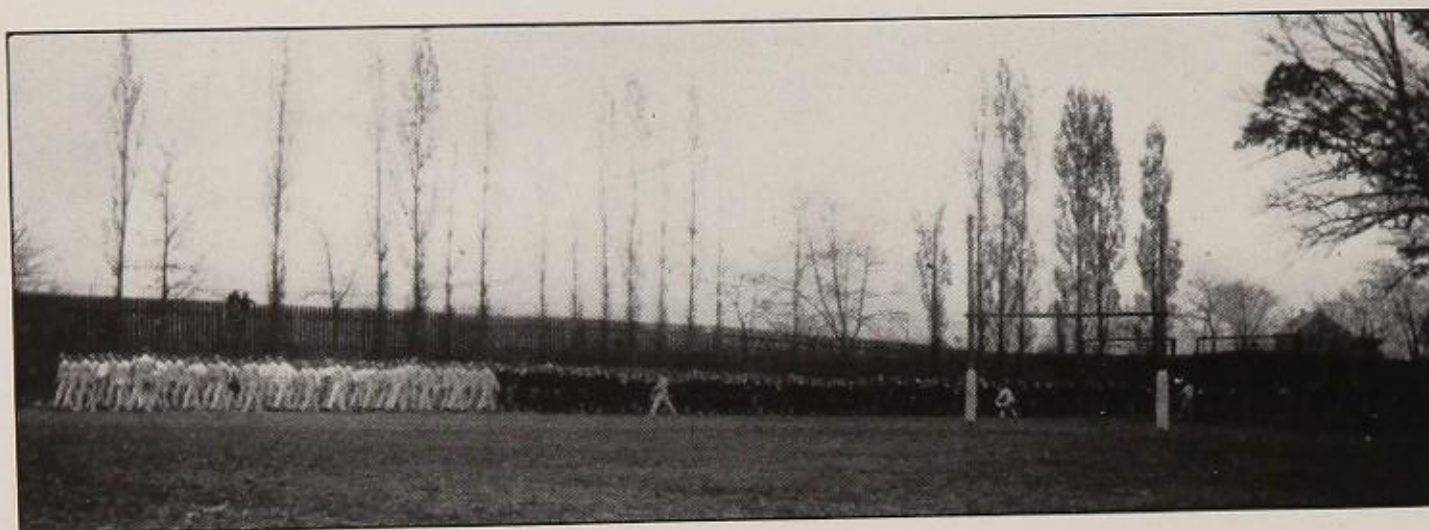

In the fourth game the team defeated the Springfield Y. M. C. A. Second team, 14 to 12. This was a hard-fought, but, at times, a sloppily played game, both scores made by the visiting team being made in the last minutes of play of the first and second halves, respectively. Although on the whole the team showed improvement over the preceding game, the line was somewhat weak at times, and the work of the backfield while on the defense was subject to criticism.

The next game, against the Yale Freshmen, was, without a doubt, the best showing that the team made during the season, and was won 13 to 3. At the beginning of the game it looked as though the heavier and more experienced college players would prove too much of a task for the school team, and several times the Hotchkiss goal was threatened, but each time the team held fast, and got the ball on downs. The scores for Hotchkiss were both made by Blakeslee—one of them on a forward pass from a place kick formation and the other by his blocking of a Yale kick and subsequent falling on the ball across the Yale goal line. The entire team showed vast improvement: the line was strong and aggressive; the ends were down fast under kicks; and the backfield worked well together.

On the following Saturday, a scoreless tie was played with the Cornell Freshmen. Each team carried the ball close to its opponent's goal, but was unable to score. The Cornell backfield was remarkably quick in getting in while on the defensive, which accounts for the fact that few long gains were made by Hotchkiss.

A loosely-played game with Pawling was the following week, and was, in many respects, disappointing. The team, to be sure, won by the score of 21 to 7, but did not exhibit nearly as good a brand of football as it had in some of the previous games. The backfield, which made many costly fumbles, was uncertain and erratic; and the tackling of the entire team was very markedly weak, which fact enabled the fast Pawling backfield to make many long gains on end runs.

The Pawling game brought to a close the preliminary season. The team had suffered but one defeat, and had either beaten or tied several powerful, well-trained teams. The Hill game, which really determines whether a season is to be termed successful or no, resulted in a defeat for the school team, and is taken up separately and in detail on the following pages.

FIRST QUARTER:

Hill's kick off to Hotchkiss' 5 yard line was run back 5 yards. By four line plunges, 3 by Hixon, one by Burt, Hotchkiss gained 12 yards. After an unsuccessful plunge Burt kicked to Hill's 40 yard line. Hill fumbled and Sidenberg recovered the ball for Hotchkiss. By six plunges Hotchkiss gained 21 yards. Hill, having gotten the ball by a forward pass out of bounds, immediately kicked to Hotchkiss' 43 yard line. After a 5-yard gain by Lindblade, Burt kicked to Hill's 35-yard line. Hill, after gaining 7 yards kicked to Hotchkiss' 30 yard line. The kick was fumbled by Baker and Hill recovered the ball. The next play was a successful drop kick by Jermyn from the 30-yard line, which was the only scoring in the game. Hotchkiss kicked off to the 20-yard line. Jermyn gained 4 yards in two plays and then kicked to Hotchkiss' 30-yard line. Burt ran it back 10 yards. After two line plunges by Hixon, Burt kicked to Hill's 15-yard line. Prizer ran back 9 yards and the quarter ended. Score: Hill-3; Hotchkiss-0.

SECOND QUARTER:

Hotchkiss, being penalized to its ten yard line for holding, kicked to Hill's 48-yard line. Bemis ran back 8 yards and then Hill was penalized 15 yards. After two gains by Jermyn and Ash, Ash circled end for a 40-yard gain bringing the ball to Hotchkiss' 19-yard line where Hill was held for downs. After a short gain by Baker, Burt's punt was blocked but Hotchkiss recovered the ball on her 7-yard line. Burt then kicked to Hotchkiss' 45-yard line to Jermyn, who ran back 9 yards. Hotchkiss then got the ball on downs on her 37 yard line. After short gains by Lindblade, Burt kicked to Hill's 15-yard line. After one unsuccessful plunge Ash's kick to Baker was run back 8 yards to the middle of the field. Plunges by Hixon and Burt gained first down. After gaining 6 more yards the half ended with the ball on Hill's 20-yard line. Score: Hill-3; Hotchkiss-0.

THIRD QUARTER:

Hill kicked off to Hotchkiss' 15-yard line. After a 12-yard gain by Hixon, Burt kicked to Hill's 47-yard line. After three plays gaining 9 yards Ash kicked to Hotchkiss' 7-yard line. Hotchkiss returned the kick to Hill's 10-yard line. After Bemis, Jermyn, and Ash had each made short gains, Jermyn kicked to Hotchkiss' 20-yard line. After a short loss Burt kicked to the middle of the field. Being twice held for 1-yard gains Hill punted over Hotchkiss' goal line. When Hixon had gained 5 yards from the 20-yard line, Hotchkiss punted to Hill's 48-yard line. Ash's gain of 17 yards around right end was followed by a 9-yard gain by Jermyn. After Hill had gained 7 more yards by 4 line plays, Jermyn tried a field goal from the 25-yard line but missed it. From the 20 yard line a forward pass from Baker to Blakeslee gained 11 yards. At this point Gilbert was substituted for Clay of Hill, and Lasell took Tilson's place on the Hotchkiss team. At the end of the quarter Hotchkiss had the ball on her own 31-yard line. Score: Hill-3; Hotchkiss-0.

FOURTH QUARTER:

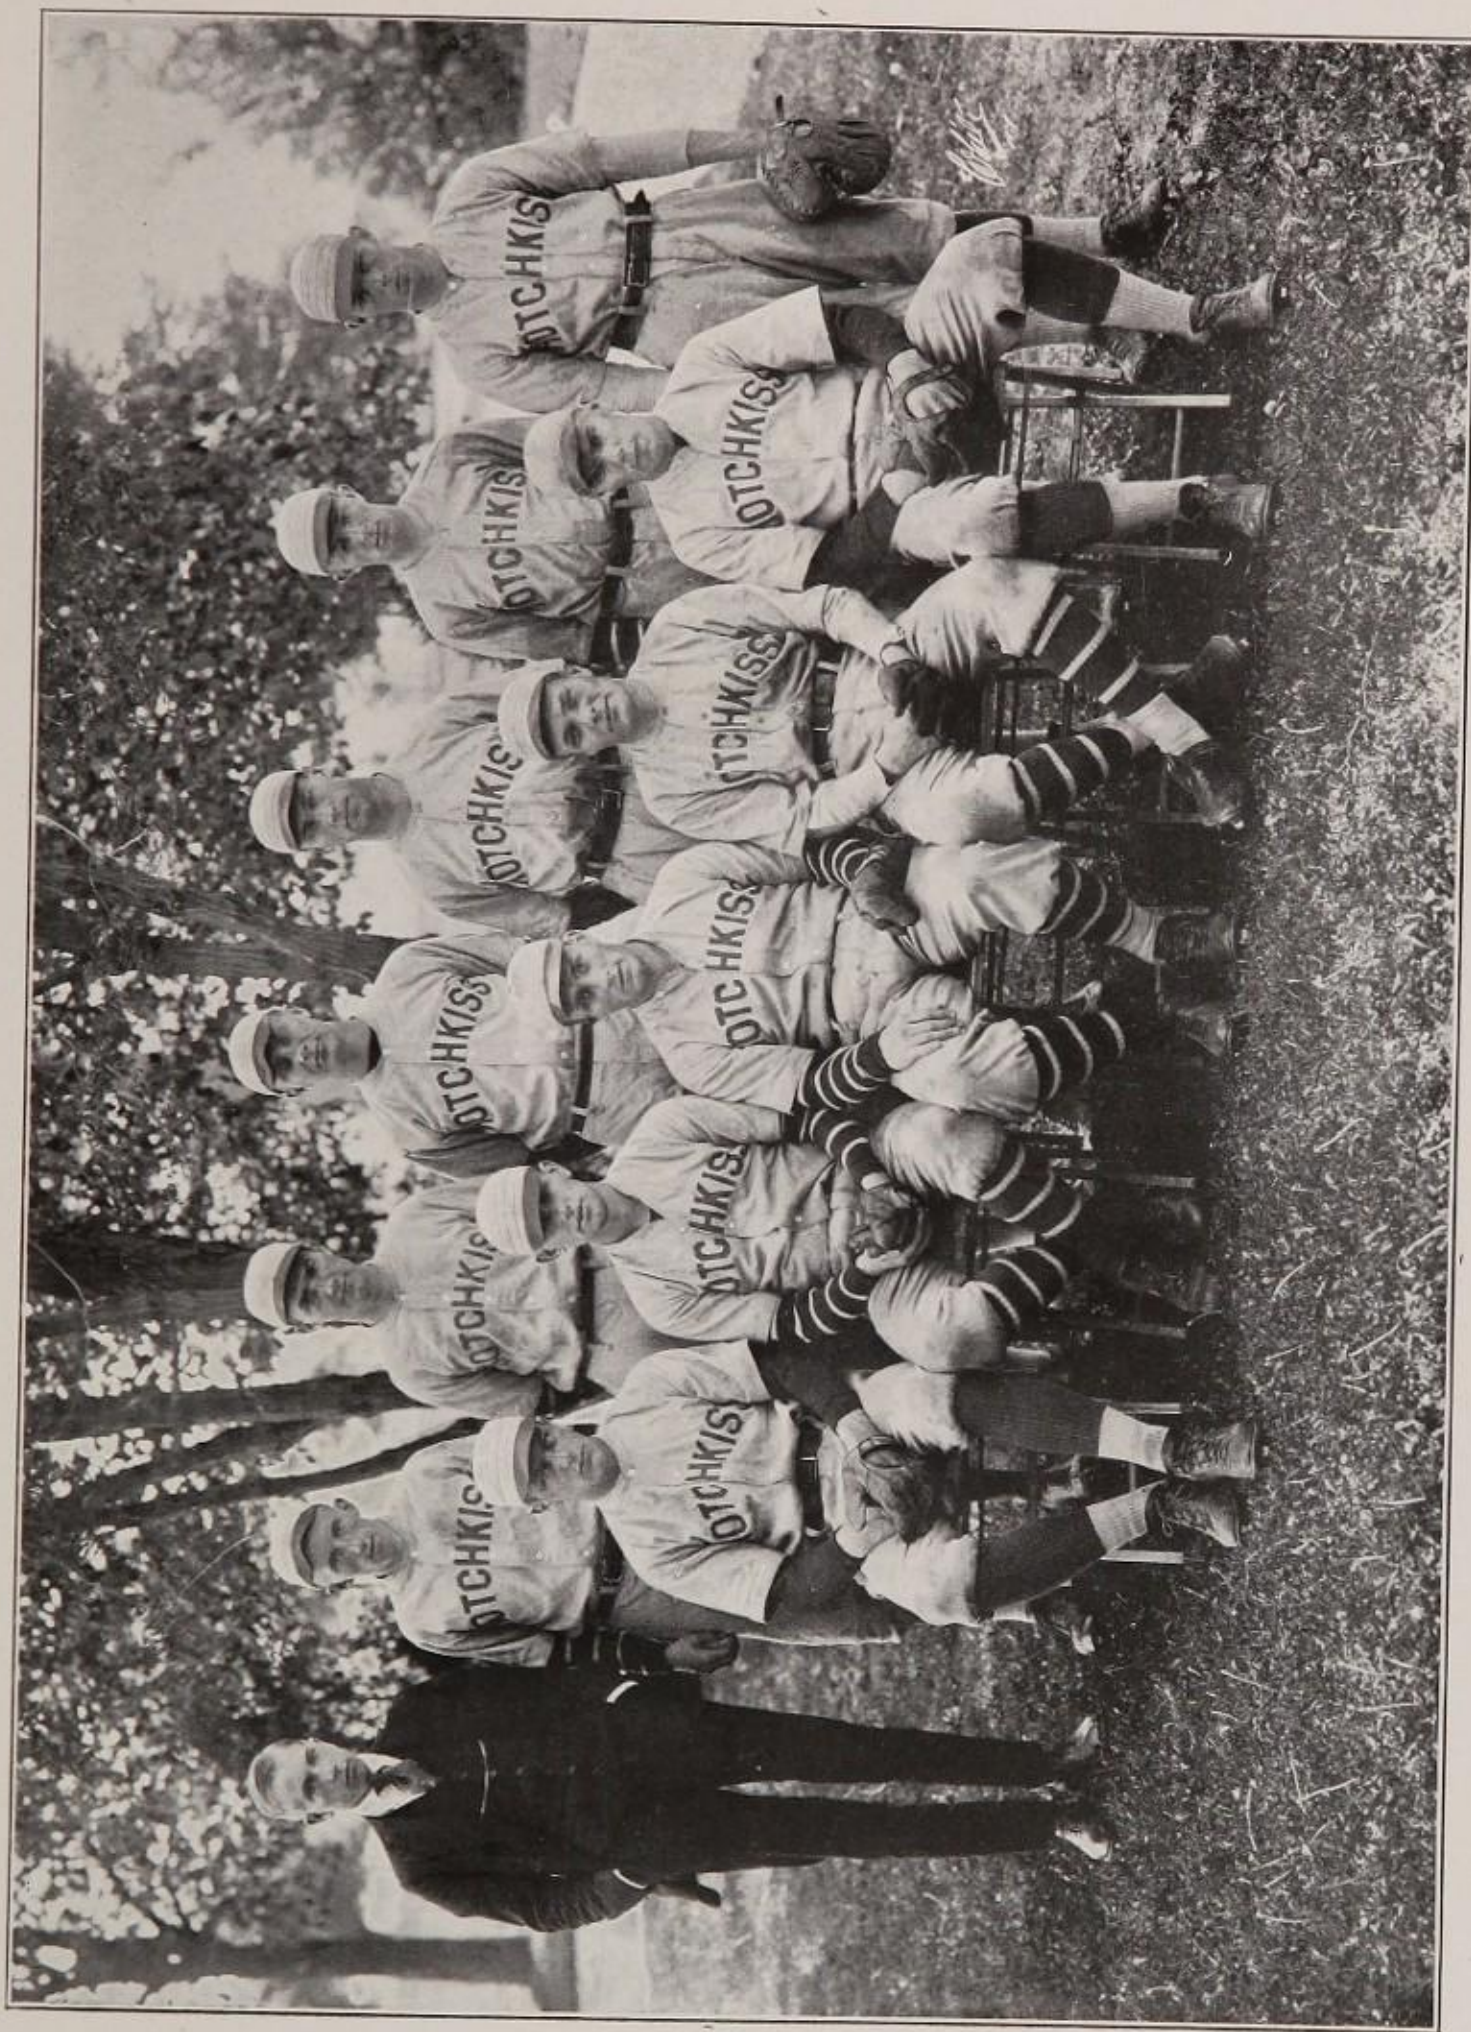

Hill sang their song at the beginning of this quarter. After 3 gains by Hixon and Burt, Hixon missed first down by a foot. The ball was Hill's on Hotchkiss' 40-yard line. After gains by Ash and Prizer, Jermyn missed an attempt at a field goal from the 40-yard line. A 25-yard forward pass to von Bernuth put the ball on Hotchkiss' 45-yard line. After an incomplete pass, a 2-yard gain by Hixon, and another incomplete pass, Burt kicked to Bemis who fumbled but recovered after being tackled by Sidenberg. After 2 gains Ash kicked to Baker on Hotchkiss' 35-yard line. After an incomplete forward pass Hixon gained two yards. Devlin went in for Weyerhauser. After 2 more plays Hill got the ball on downs, and gained first down in 3 plays. After Lasell had thrown Prizer for a loss and Ash had failed to gain, Jermyn punted to Baker on Hotchkiss' 14-yard line. After two unsuccessful passes Schniedel intercepted a pass and in the next two plays Hill brought the ball to Hotchkiss' 10-yard line. At this point the final whistle blew, giving the Hill a victory by the score of 3 to 0, secured by a drop-kick by Jermyn, the Hill captain, in the first period of play.

Review of the 1916 Baseball Season

The 1916 baseball squad began regular practice immediately after the spring vacation. The squad was smaller than usual, but there was an encouraging number of old men with which to start.

During the first two weeks the baseball work was greatly handicapped by weather conditions. Cold rains and rough ground kept the men in the gym long after the usual time for outdoor practice. The first two games of the season—those with New Haven High and Pittsfield—were cancelled on account of rain.

The first test came on April 22, when the team met the Yale Freshmen. The score was 9-2 in favor of the Freshmen. The team's very weak batting and some good pitching for Yale account largely for the school's defeat.

On the following Wednesday the Hotchkiss nine was defeated by Kent with a score of 5-3. The game was slow and uninteresting. Again failure to hit was the cause of our defeat. Another game was lost when the Yale Seconds came to Lakeville. The school team was helpless against the older and more experienced men. The score was 5-3.

The game with Saint Paul's marked the beginning of a decided improvement in batting, which characterized our team in the latter part of the season. The visitors were easily defeated 10-1.

In the following week, Hotchkiss was again defeated by two superior teams. Dean Academy proved itself a stronger team. Also Pawling outplayed the Hotchkiss men in a game of hard hitting and loose-fielding. The Taft game was easily won by our opponents, chiefly through well bunched hits. The score was 10-2. In the first extra-inning game of the season, Hotchkiss was defeated by Holbrook with the close score of 8-7.

Hotchkiss played good ball against the Williams Freshmen. Steady hitting and good pitching brought to us a 6-2 victory. The second Pawling game was an exciting one. Hotchkiss did some very creditable batting against good pitching. The result of the game was in suspense till the last; but Pawling finished with a two run lead.

MISCH IANZA

On June 3, when the Hill team came, a heavy rain made it impossible to play, and the game was postponed till the following Monday morning.

From previous records made during the year, the two teams seemed about equally matched; each had only two victories to its credit; but each had made surprising improvement in the last week of practice.

In the first six innings, Hotchkiss seemed to outplay The Hill. The fielding on both sides was excellent, while the home team appeared to have an advantage in batting. At the end of this period, the score was 1-0 in favor of Hotchkiss. But in the seventh inning two three-baggers and two singles off Selleck brought in three runs for Hill. After that Hotchkiss was able to score only one run against the steady defence of the visiting team. The final score was 3-2 in favor of The Hill.

Although records show only a small per cent. of victories, and show a defeat at the hands of our rival, the Hotchkiss team deserves the credit of hard fighting and of unusual development in the latter part of the season.

The 1916 Track Season

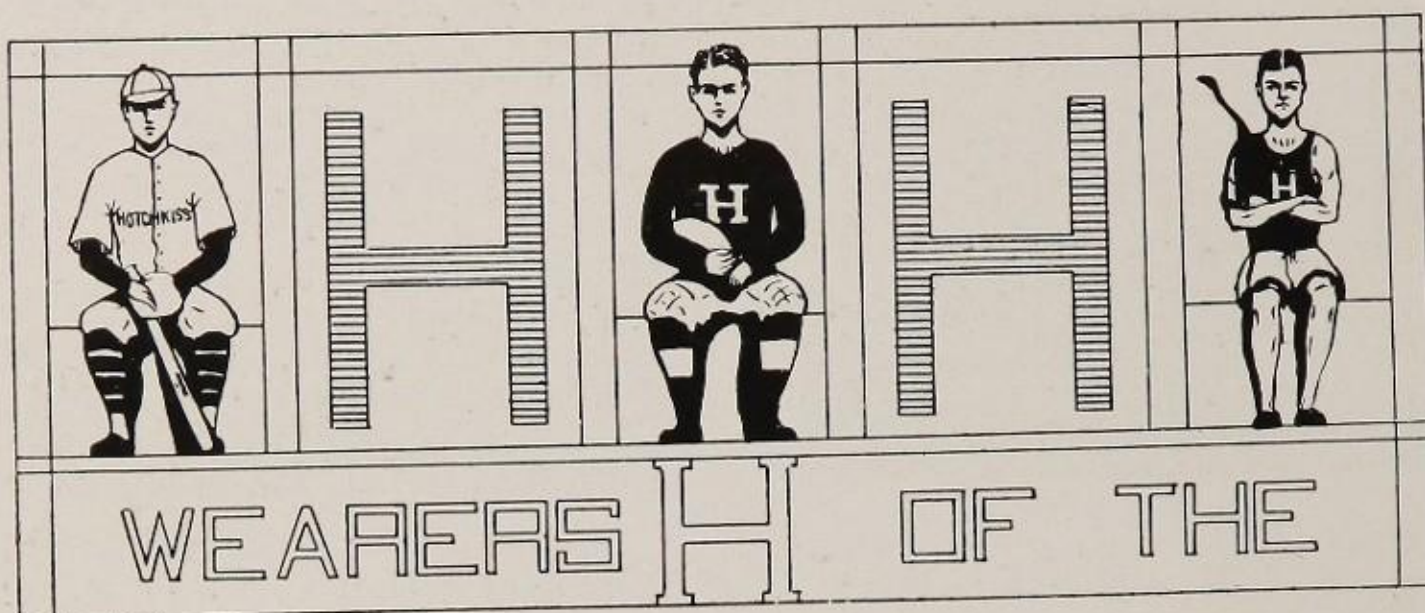

On May 13th the 1916 Track season was opened by seven of the team competing in the Yale Interscholastics, at Yale Field. In this meet Captain Hixon won the hammer throw, and got fourth in the shot put; Burtt tied for first in the pole-vault at 10 ft., 8½ inches, which broke the school record in this event, and won second place in the broad-jump. Henry got third in the hammer-throw. Woollen won fourth place in the broad jump; and Schnaars got third in the 880-yard run. These places gave Hotchkiss a total of 18 points, and third place in the meet.

On May 20th Taft was defeated 59 to 37. Hotchkiss accomplished the remarkable feat of capturing every place in each field event. Hixon broke the shot-put record of 43 ft., 5½ inches, set by Captain Douglass of the 1915 team with a put of 44 ft., 2 in.; and for the third time this year, Burtt raised the pole-vault record to 11 ft., ½ inch.

The final meet of the season, with Pawling, on the 25th of May, was won, 82 to 14. Captain Hixon for the third successive year broke the hammer-throw record, with a heave of 181 ft., 6½ inches. Schnaars, with firsts in the 440-yard dash and the 880-yard run, and a second in the mile-run was the greatest individual point winner.

This meet completed a track season, which, although it opened upon a prospect far from bright, must be termed one of the most successful ever known at Hotchkiss.

TENNIS TEAM

Review of Minor Sports, 1915-16

(Up to June 1st)

Teams were chosen to represent the school in four minor sports during the past year. The hockey team tied the first two games, won the third, and lost the fourth to Pawling; the gun team won two out of three shoots; the tennis team lost the first two matches of the season; the golf team won the only match that it has as yet played, 11-0, against Hartford High School.

The hockey season opened by a 6-6 tie with the Hartford High School on Jan. 15. The playing of the team was greatly improved in the game with Kent on Jan. 9, which also resulted in a tie, 3-3. This was the best played game of the season. The game with Berkshire on Feb. 12, resulting in a 4-1 victory for the school was unsatisfactory and slow on account of a snowfall during the entire game. In the final game of the season, that at Pawling on Feb. 23, the school team was defeated 4-1, in spite of the fact that the Hotchkiss forwards made repeated shots at the opponents' goal, which were skillfully stopped by the Pawling goal-guard, Hutchinson.

The Taft gun team defeated the school team in the first shoot of the season, on May 20, by the score of 163-151. A week later fortune turned and the team defeated Taft 159-150. T. J. Robertson, making 44 "kills" out of a possible 50, was the high gun. The next shoot of the season was a victory for the school over the Pawling gun team by the score of 157-139.

The tennis team was defeated on May 5 by the Dartmouth Freshmen 5-1. In the following week the tennis team suffered another defeat by the experienced Hartford High School team by the score of 4-1.

Athletic Improvements, 1912-16

The class of 1916 has seen many improvements in the constantly developing athletic equipment of the school.

During the four years, great improvement has been made in the golf course. The kindness of friends of the school has brought to us better grounds for playing, hazards, and many of the minor properties of a good golf course.

In 1913, the Senior Class of the preceding year gave a grandstand, which was completed in time for the baseball season. The new stand is built upon concrete foundations, is entirely covered, and has a seating capacity of 500. It surpasses in every way the inadequate stands formerly used.

The new athletic field, composing fourteen acres, was perhaps the greatest and most beneficial improvement. The land was purchased by the trustees in May, 1913. The grading, draining, and finishing were given by friends of the school. Such extensive provision for class and sub-class athletics cannot fail to prove of the utmost advantage to the physical interests of the school.

The Bryan swimming pool, the gift of James T. Bryan and Benjamin B. Bryan, Jr., of New York, was built in 1913. The pool measures twenty by sixty feet, and varies from three and a half to eight feet deep. The containing house and the apparatus for filtering and heating were paid for by subscription from friends of the school. The whole was finished by the winter of 1914 and has since been in constant use.

Hockey facilities were considerably bettered by an enlargement of the pond for the season of 1914, and by the construction of a hockey house the following year. The trustees were responsible for the first improvement, which furnished space for three or four rinks, sufficient for both school and class teams, and increased the average depth to four feet. The hockey house, the gift of the class of 1914, serves as a shelter and resting place for players.

In the fall of 1914, the Gun Club received from Mr. Simmons a set of new, concrete-set traps. Other general improvements were made in connection with the club during the remainder of the same year.

Also in the year 1914-15, the long-felt need for a more complete and serviceable boat-house was met by the gift of Dr. and Mrs. Christian Holmes, of Cincinnati. The building contains on the upper floor two lounging rooms with an open fireplace, a kitchen, and a covered porch overlooking the lake; below, on the water line, are thirty lockers for canoes. A large float adjoins the lower part. The dimensions of the house are sixty by twenty-five feet.

Finally, in our own senior year, we have enjoyed the gift of Mr. E. F. Swift. The addition of another room to the track house has furnished abundant locker room to both baseball and track squads, and has enabled us to extend proper courtesies to visiting teams.

Fair Hotchkiss

Tune—Die Wacht am Rhine

Fair Hotchkiss! we thy loyal sons,
Where'er in life our journey runs,
We'll cherish all the mem'ries dear
That cluster 'round our sojourn here.

Chorus

Fair Hotchkiss, tho' we come and go
While o'er thy walls our ivies grow,
We still shall love, shall love thee and be true

To dear, to dear old Hotchkiss, and the blue.

When ev'ning shadows close the day,
Thy halls with music sweet are gay,
With festal scenes of every cheer,
For friendship ripens year by year.

And when life's shadows deeper grow,
We'll feel the bright'ning after-glow
Of mem'ries dear and friendships true
Of dear old Hotchkiss and the blue.

W. L. Dix, '98.

School Hymn

Written for The Hotchkiss School

Tune—"St. Anne's"

Almighty, Merciful, and Wise,
Thy sons before Thee stand,
Attending ere the hour of strife,
Thine aid and Thy command.

O Mind who knowest all our thought,
O Heart of loving care,
O Strength of whom our strength is born,
Hear Thou Thy servants' prayer:

That purity may keep our lives,
That truth in us may shine,
That faithfulness and fearlessness
In service may combine.

Unseen, our ways before us lie;
Unfelt, our dangers hide;
O Light and Might of all who need,
None feareth at Thy side!

O keep us in Thy service true
Till every fight be won;
Then may Thy word the victor greet,
"Thou hast prevailed; well done!"

MR. J. E. BARSS.

Hotchkiss Thy Name We Cheer

Tune—Russian National Hymn

Hotchkiss, thy name we cheer,
Honor and love;
Thy praise in chorus loud
We pour above.
Long shall thy loyal sons
To fair ideals be true,
And keep thy faithful service
Ever new.

Hotchkiss, thy name we cheer,
Whate'er betide;
No sadness of defeat
Thy fame shall hide;
But, grand in victory,
Thy triumphs we shall boast;
Fair Hotchkiss on the hill,
We love thee most.

F. C. DICKSON.

Hail to Hotchkiss

Tune—Believe Me

Hail, hail to thee, Hotchkiss, thou
queen of the hills,
Hail, guardian of memories dear.
With devotion we pray to the end of the way—
May thy spirit attending be near.
There's a love that we feel that no
language can speak,
There's a debt that our lives must re-
pay;
For there's never a school like the
school on the hill,
With its walls in their mantles of gray.

Hail, hail to thee, Hotchkiss, inspired be each heart
With the spirit that hallows thy halls;
We'll strive to be true to thy name and
the blue,
While memory thine image recalls—
We'll boast thy proud name to the ends of the earth—
To thy star may each life be a ray,
For there's never a school like the
school on the hill,
With its walls in their mantles of gray.

Apologies to Culbreth Sudler

Pretty purple pudding
Dainty doubtful dish,
Gloriously resplendent
Served along with fish.

Mauled and mangled meat-ball
Immeasurable is thy power—
Explosive seem thy insides
At the dinner hour.

Pure poetic cream-puff,
Fragrant fragile prize,
Long thy memory lingers
When thy victim dies.

An Elegy to Bissell Attie

(Apologies to Thomas Gray)

The dim of dips denotes the parting day,
Around the bend now roars the C. N. E.
"Feet" Wilcox homeward plods his weary way,
The lights then go, and I no more can see.

Now fades the lamp of "Casky" on my sight,
Across the hall I hear the Shepley neigh,
The "Peril" and the "Snookie" start a fight,
"Shut up," yells Brink, "it's time to hit the hay!"

But Kisser, wandering from his secret bower,
Suspects a feed, and goes to seek it out;
He thus neglects to take his weekly shower,
And bursts upon the swillers with a shout.

And Dr. John Gray, smelling strong of skunk,
To Louie, who his Victor softly plays,
Remarks, "I guess I'll dive into my bunk,"
But Louie, fond of music, still delays.

Too Good to Be True

I had a dream in Latin Class—
If it should ever come to pass,
It would be quite remarkable,
As it was all impossible.

I dreamed I was a gray-haired sage,
A relic of a bygone age,
Who had come back, with spirit fine,
To see my school in '69.

Through din of traffic at the ville
I took the jitney up the hill;
I gazed, but did not recognize
The spires towering toward the skies.

Old Hotchkiss had been excellent,
The New was just magnificent:
The marble buildings were so tall
I couldn't see the tops at all.

One building had a golden dome—
It was somebody's private home.
I'll bet that you could never guess
Who lived in such proud kingliness!

At last we reached the brazen gate
Where Rudy's young subordinate
Agreed to show me all around,
From topmost floors, down to the ground.

He led me down a corridor
Which was in length a mile or more;
A thousand convicts, more or less,
Were waxing it with great success.

We skated down without a fall;
I gazed, and saw along the wall
A thousand names of brainy souls—
They all had made High Honor Rolls.

These boys were doubtless very wise,
For all loved healthful exercise;
They never went down to the ville
To see the movies or to "swill".

Instead, about ten times a day,
A boy would see the coach and say,
"It's baking hot out in the sun,
Please map me out a twelve-mile run."

These boys, in many other ways,
Were unlike us of former days—
When meal bells rang they did not sin
By loitering—they walked right in.

They never were on knocking bent,
They said the food was excellent,
And fish!—that ever sacred word
In profane talk was never heard.

At last I bade the school good-bye,
And cried, with tear-drops in my eye,
"Farewell, my friends, it grieves me sore
To leave you here forever more."

But here a laugh burst forth; it seemed
I had been talking as I dreamed;
The master said "Awake, you brat,
Right there's the door, and here's your hat!"

HERCULES ON THE LINKS

A Fair Spring Day at Hotchkiss

The day looked clear as we ran up to breakfast brushing our teeth with our portable pocket tooth-brushes, and with our trousers dragging on the ground, and the rumor of "holiday" spread like wildfire. Eagerly we waited through chapel service, but after the "Amen", that machine-like, Imperial nod sent 250 of us moaning out of chapel.

It was hot that morning and we wandered from class to class dreaming of auto rides, her, iced-tea, and swimming. That afternoon, on Baker Field, everything was in an uproar. The "Never Miss a Chance to Make an Error" ball team beat the "Christian Science" team, 0 to 0. (Although the score would seem to indicate a tie, the victory was awarded to the "Never Miss a Chance to Make an Error Team", because Tilson, who was on 3rd could probably have got home on Tessie's home-run, but he got mixed up, and ran home by way of second and first bases, and was put out at the plate by "Peg-leg" Winter.) Besides this, Frog Hotchkiss stole a base; "Cat" Smith resigned from the "captaincy"; "Doggie" Anderson was chasing flies; Dutch Blakeslee let a grounder get by; and N. J.'s tongue was paralyzed. On the track, "Rooster" Estill was frantically chasing "Fowle" around the oval (This is not a Hute joke). The Count von "Is He There" was not as though hypnotized; and "Snake" Greene jumped 5 ft., 5 in. for the first time since his "prep" year at Fessenden, seven years ago. It "sure was" a wild afternoon.

That evening we hungrily stormed through the dining-room door, when a typical "Friday odor" greeted our snouts. Too late to retreat! And anyhow, "Chow-Chow" Luce would be sure to get us if we cut. (He no longer needs to go to each individual table to take attendance—he merely stands up, and looks about him, and can tell at a glance who is missing). Boldly taking a chance, we nodded to the weekly "whether will you have?", and plunged our forks into the quivering fish,—but it was no use. We had to satisfy ourselves with Hute jokes and olives. After our meal, we sauntered into the "privilege" room, and were playfully jumped on, kicked in the face, trampled on, and undressed by some of the more childish members of the class, who, led by our Plattsburg hero, Colonel Alpha Delt Lasell, called themselves "The Army". (Sherman's famous saying certainly holds true to the warfare of Alpha Delt's army!) After re-dressing our mutilated bodies, we strolled out on the campus. There we saw Kelsey and Wilcox drawing giggles from an appreciative gallery of Preps by making faces at each other. Farther on, we ran into Hamline and Kelley talking over "the week in Society," with Sudler near by, trying to appear unconcerned, but straining his ear to catch the scandalous gossip. Egbert and Don went by—or was it Don and Egbert? John Hincks and Fluff Marshall, two of the craziest nuts of the "Greek" division, discussing "blotting-paper in the days of Alexander," next bumped into us. Cooke came by, peeking over his chins. With a furtive glance, Hindmost Harry sneaked up, hiding some stolen "Misch" cuts under his coat. And then we espied Mr. Banghart, the German spy, leaning against a tree, and making a free-hand sketch of the fortifications at Millerton, which would doubtless be the first place attacked, in case of a German invasion. He also had several snap-shots of the Robbins Burrall Trust Co., where vast hoards of U. S. currency would be stored for safe keeping against the Germans. Then "Pretty Apollo" Kiser, with his Brownie No. 1, sauntered by, stopping every few steps to take pictures of the gravel on the road, or the tennis backstops, or some individual members of the Faculty. Here the original "Huter" came up, mirthfully announcing that we had 797 advance lines of Vergil for the next day, besides having to memorize "Hamlet" for the first recitation. This called attention to the fact that it was about time for study. Our watches, upon examination, said 7.32. We trooped into that most beloved of Hotchkiss rooms, confronted by 120 perspiring, soft-shirted, grinning youths. With ghoulish glee, the master in charge gave us "tardies". We sat stickily down in our well-worn seats, pulled our respective pieces of gum from under our desks, got out our Vergils, and looked about. Dan had that dreamy, fickle mixture of a smile and a stare on his face; Hix was composing music; "Beer" Manny was eating an orange, and Andy was playing solitaire. Instinctively sensing the eagle eye of the master (Doc Brown himself) fixed upon us, we started on our Latin. It was useless! On our left, "Wamba" Hoyt, with an enraptured look on his face, was reading "the latest letter" (received some time during the Fall term), and Tessie, with both feet on his desk, for safety's sake, was sound asleep. 'Way up front, in one of the low desks, was Knox, trying to dope out what pop-questions he would be asked next day in history. Near the back of the room, over on the right side, was "Snook" Sidenberg, mirror in hand, counting the hairs on his head. Next to Hix was "Minnie" Minott, writing passionate lyrics to Hix's music. Near the teacher's desk, was "Pep" MacMillan, with a niblick in his pocket, reading J. G. Estill's latest book, "How to make time on the Golf Course." Inspired, we tried some more Latin. Now and then we were interrupted by an alarm-clock going off, or by a pair of dice dropping on the floor; or we would play peek-a-boo with the master under our eye-shades, or, feeling playful, would hit our fellow sufferer in front of us on the head with a dictionary; but these were evening sports.

The 9.30 bell woke us up!
Next day: "Really Mr. Barss, I spent two hours and forty-five minutes last night on this Vergil lesson."

When writing for Volume XIX of "Hute Jokes" (school boys' edition) kindly mention the "Misch"

If Caesar'd dressed like Hamline
Or run like J. P. Cooke,
Had beat the box like Hixon,
Or worked as much as Snook;

If he had written like Herman,
Or talked as loud as Brit,
And read the snappy (?) stories
That appeared in "Letty Lit,"

And if he'd done his Latin,
Without the aid of "Shep,"
And dreamed of golf and girlies
Like pessimistic "Pep,"

And studied by a stop-watch
Like Johnny Hincks and Booze,
And looked from out his chariot,
Like Wilcox from his shoes,

Had twirled his hair like "Peril,"
Or eaten like good ole Phil
Had prayed like the "Devil in Chapel"
Or joked like "Dave Brine Til,"

Or if he knew the bright lights,
Like dimpled Dreamer Dan,
Or worn a beard in Summer
Like Hank-the-Hermits' "Van,"

And if he'd danced with "Cleo,"
Like Heine Greene-E-Snake,
And if he'd bluffed and alibi'd
Like Tessie Peck, the fake—

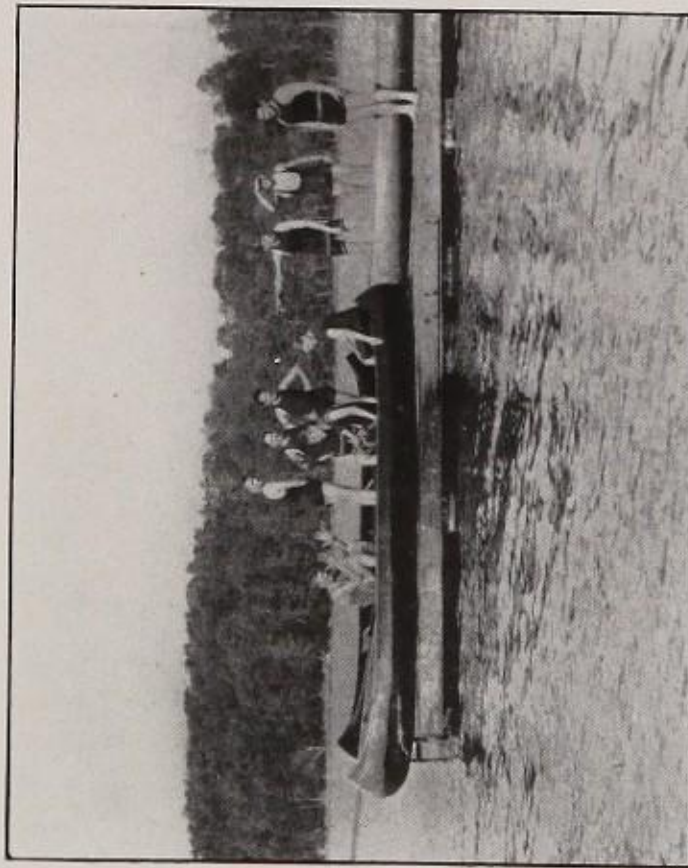

There'd have been no Roman Empire,
Nor war against the Gauls,
And we'd not be boning Latin
While the "cream-puff Cosmo" calls.

Fall Term

Sept. 21—Advance guard of new boys arrives so as to get time "to hang up sister's picture" before work starts.

Sept. 22—Well, here we are! King refuses to recognize us before examining our health certificates. Seventy new brothers formally adopted in gym—one calls Frank a liar, but takes it back after lights.

Sept. 23—Call for football candidates enthusiastically answered by Feet, Fluff, and Hix.

Sept. 24—Snooks falls off table in Senior Room while giving daring dance, "The Birth of a Chicken."

Sept. 25—Football squad and Mr. Eddy have big feed. Prize puzzle contest: Why didn't they invite Mr. Mony to it?

Sept. 27—First scrimmage, between Josh's "Terrible Turks" and Hix. King makes all new boys homesick by reading "Abe" Lincoln's letter to a homesick boy.

Sept. 28—Frank passes four out of four college exams. Blushing modestly, he says that the famous "Wet the Ropes" sermon is what did it.

Sept. 29—Andy undertakes to coach Don in the art of osculation for the Fall dance.

Sept. 30—Pot Ferguson nominated for presidency of Prep Class.

Oct. 1—Royal flea-hound mistakes John Hamline for a piece of steak and bites him in the Morris chair.

Oct. 2—Birnie eats his first potato, but doesn't lose any of his pep.

Oct. 3—Shep shies at steam-roller and throws a shoe before he can be brought under control.

Oct. 4—Fire chief arrives and is enthusiastic over the plan to “burn the Faculty at any cost”; Jeff smokes cigarette to get his lungs used to smoke in case of fire.

Oct. 5—The way we show our approval of the President’s engagement in Latin class is not appreciated.

Oct. 7—Schau to Hix, in scrimmage: “Get off me wicked boy, or I’ll shoot you!”

Oct. 8—Cider season fast approaching—Ben and Jeff go on water wagon to avoid temptation.

Oct. 9—Hotch and John Kip drop to Lower Middle Class—it’s really wonderful what a man can do in five years.

Oct. 10—Taylor takes up Frank Hancock’s “Lost Chord Course” on the piano, and says he expects to be playing “Aida” in a week, if he practises faithfully.

Oct. 11—Student-body tries to suppress coming “Lit”, but thru treachery, it leaks out. Pictorial section, containing snapshots of interesting step-ladders, the new lawn-mower, and the Faculty, a great success.

Oct. 15—Mr. Barss, in recitation, starts talking about pigeons. Ed. Hoyt thinks of “The Eagles in Mobile” and explodes. Mr. Barss, to get even, dismisses class.

Oct. 16—Girl in grandstand (pointing at Kitty Smith): “Oh, I didn’t know you had a real live mascot. How old is he? And all dressed up in football clothes! He is a dear!”

Oct. 18—Ed. Simpson awarded the white spats for playing solitaire all evening in study right under Doc. Brown’s eyes.

Oct. 20—Pus and Bird drag Stu into St. Luke’s.

Oct. 22—Mr. Barss (translating Vergil): “And Dido went up on high” Andy: “She must have had a Buick.”

Oct. 23—Yale Freshmen beaten, 13 to 3. Many thanks to you, Dutch Blakeslee.

Oct. 24—"Tap Day" for the Olympian and Pythian Societies. Mr. Spencer refuses both, claiming that he's a member of the Faculty.

Oct. 26—Hidden secret of Dan's life revealed when it is learned that he was caught once with a (clam) cocktail in a New York hotel.

Oct. 27—Mr. Grant: "Every fellow should have a note-book in class hereafter—it will do half your work for you."

Knox: "I think I'll get two of 'em."

Nov. 1—Cat Smith almost busts up practice by calling for plays that he has made up on the spot or which are so old that everybody else has forgotten them.

Nov. 3—Romance surprises school. Cat Hadden and Cat Smith announce their marriage.

Nov. 4—Pus taken on football squad, and five minute scrimmage lays him cold.

Nov. 5—Eight more masters added to list of those who conduct chapel—pretty soon we'll have to go twice a day to give them all a chance to pray for us.

Nov. 6—Hotchkiss, 21—Pawling, 7. Senior dance—and Heine Greene might as well have been a Prep.

Nov. 7—Kelley, waiting atop the power-house for feed, gets caught in a sparrow trap and almost dies from exposure during the night.

Nov. 8—Vergil "interlinear" carelessly left on radiator in main corridor. J. E. B. says he isn't guilty, so it must be Art Warwick's.

Nov. 9—Fluff fools Mr. Hall and misses a "pop-question"—Pot Ferguson answers one the same day.

Nov. 10—Work starts on Dr. Buehler's new "Dago garden."

Nov. 11—Schauwecker decides to repeat a year at Hotchkiss so that he can room with his son at college.

Nov. 12—Hill beats us, 3 to 0. "Jermyn" efficiency is what did it.

Nov. 13—Frank at last passes a subject, but school doesn't get expected holiday.

Nov. 14—Snooks awakes at 7.30 to find all seven hairs disarranged.

Nov. 17—Blakeslee elected captain of football team for next year—we only ask him not to treat the Yale Fresh the way he did this year.

Nov. 18—Photographer gets reckless with his camera and takes picture of Faculty. Mr. Mony wants one put in the dining room to aid digestion.

Nov. 19—Atlanta goes dry—Bird goes crazy.

Nov. 20—Yale wins great moral victory over Harvard—Score, Yale, 0; Harvard, 41.

Nov. 22—New ruling by Faculty: "Lights until 10:30 in Bissell." (Late lights are for Mr. Eddy returning from the Girls' Friendly Club".)

Nov. 23—"Teucer" Dan almost gets us all in study by telling the King that he works much better on a hard, wooden bench.

Nov. 24—Egbert's speech in "Public Speaking" sounds as though it were out of "The Songs of Songs." Careful Egbert, don't let your brother "Booze" lead you astray!

Nov. 25—(Thanksgiving Day). Mystifying, startling tricks done by Wood, the plumber-magician, and his assistant, Miss Hardez Nails.

Nov. 27—Thunder and Tessie both go fussing at the "Friendly Club", and become rivals in love. Thunder is "there" with the small talk, but then Tessie's build is so attractive! May the best man win!

Nov. 28—Bird returns from New York with three broken toes, and in a state of general debility.

Nov. 29—Caesar's "varsity limp" won't leave him (except when he forgets about it).

Nov. 30—Hash from our Thanksgiving turkeys for breakfast. Kelsey names it "Review of Reviews."

Dec. 1—Bills come in, and Thundermug contemplates suicide.

Dec. 2—Biddy goes home for the rest of the year because of pink-eye—it's hard luck being a shark!

Dec. 3—Dan is in his element at last—he hurts his foot, and can't do anything but study.

Dec. 4—Mouse, smelling cheese among Hix's socks, scares Hix frightfully.

Dec. 5—N. J.'s letter arrives, and he rents his mail-box for three weeks.

Dec. 6—Mr. Hall: "Did Rameses II build the pyramids?"

Dick Whitin: "No, he was a king, not a carpenter."

Dec. 13—Charlie Walker's typewriter has the pip, and he goes outdoors to find that it is winter and the leaves have left the trees.

Dec. 14—Kelsey, Cooke and Wilcox pay their Holley bills, which sends ice-cream stocks soaring.

Dec. 16—Knox, small but crooked, elected class treasurer for next term. Hix, president; Lasell, vice-president; Tilson, secretary.

Dec. 22—Bird, Hix, Pus, Frank and Ed leave, reluctantly carrying 21 conditions between them.

Winter Term

Jan. 11—All back with Christmas supply of handkerchiefs, socks, etc., except Minnie Minott, who's tearing it off in N. Y. society; and Pus, and Ed.

Jan. 12—John Hamline, Dan Winter and Rus Kelley surprise each other at telephone booth after supper, each one thinking he would get away with a call to Westover on the sly.

Jan. 13—Pus returns, rather "worn out", so to speak.

Jan. 16—N. J.'s hair freezes coming up to breakfast, and won't be twirled.

Jan. 18—Dutch, (in locker-room): "Say, Bird, what do you do in the gym?"

Bird: "O, I've got some new stunts on the chest-weights."

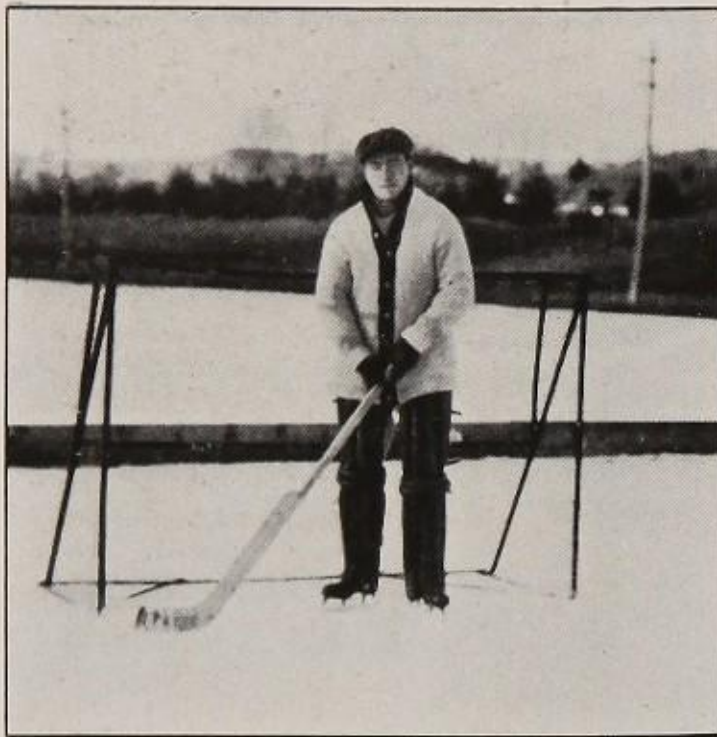

Jan. 20—Steve gets zero on a history paper, and Mr. Hall collapses—this pulls Steve's average down to 89%.

Jan. 23—Joe Minotts face vs. school slide, 4 p. m.

Jan. 24—For once, Mr. Hering pulls off French test without telling us beforehand—needless to say, none passed.

Jan. 25—Bird Maddox goes to infirmary with some negro sickness.

Jan. 26—Fred Tilson accidentally hits Mr. Buell on back of head with book. Mr. Buell gets even by saying that he'll start up the "Rundtafel" again, and make him president.

Jan. 27—Frank asks to go to Rosemary, and the King tells him to wait until he sees his marks for the quarter.

Jan. 28—Stu gets letter signed “Yours till the sofa breaks.”

Jan. 29—(See Jan. 27). The King sees Frank’s cellar—like marks and tells him he’d better go to Rosemary for good.

Feb. 4—(Seen in a N. Y. newspaper). Wanted: A girl, preferably white, between 13 and 57 years of age, to come to the Hotchkiss Mid. Must be able to speak the king’s English, sit through a musical-club concert, and dance on her own feet. Must not swear, chew, drink, or eat fish-balls with a spoon. Face and build to count 50%. Apply, Snooks, Lakeville, Conn.

Feb. 5—Dan gets her most recent picture, taken fully a month later than the previous one, and with her hair fixed differently. (John H. also receives one.)

Feb. 6—Dr. Buchler begs us to eat the fish, as it cannot be used again.

Feb. 13—The Mid fast approaching, and Dr. Buchler, in a very personal speech, warns us against the dangers of skidding across the borders of propriety and conventionality.

Feb. 14—“On the clue of the ice-cream box”—extra good detecting done by J. E. B.

Feb. 15—Hotchkiss Society Orchestra organized. Hix is so good on the ukalele that Harris thinks he must have some Hawaiian blood in him.

Feb. 16—Reign of Terror! We are told that stiff collars must be worn at all gatherings during Mid.

Feb. 17—Dan has great shock when he sees that his new suit is the same as Taylor’s old one.

Feb. 18—Hotchkiss becomes co-ed for three days. Gee, how those snaky Upper Mids do tear it off—to hear them talk, you'd think every one was a Nat Goodwin.

Feb. 19—Pythians win meet, largely due to Bird's steady and enthusiastic cheer-leading. "The Great Lover" arrives on the scene, much to Snook's chagrin.

Feb. 20—Dr. Nehemiah Boynton cheers us up in chapel. Girls depart, leaving behind them the usual amount of gloves, handkerchiefs, pieces of net, and even a few slippers.

Feb. 21—Egbert cuts out Don by sending her his picture. Don says he'll send his too, but Itch convinces him that that will only get him in bad, because his jolly red nose is most objectionable to a nice girl.

Feb. 22—Uncle Joe, in control of the ship during the skipper's absence, makes things lively for us. During his first day as captain, in his calm Southern manner, he declares the school quarantined; sequesters one boy; expels one boy; calls two special faculty meetings; keeps us in chapel an extra twenty minutes, trying to dope out how many have not had the mumps; and gets Seniors and Faculty together at 9 p. m. Nice, quiet day!

Feb. 23—Tessie loses control of himself in the King's study, and Faculty put on their goloshes.

Feb. 24—Infirmary now includes ground floor of Bissell.

Feb. 26—Extra! Peace Declared! Insurrectos, under General Hoyt, and Conservatives, under Commander Estill, come to terms. Conditions of peace greatly favor Commander Estill's veteran forces.

Feb. 28—Pawling, 4—Hotchkiss, 1. (Air turned all colors of the rainbow, and then some, by N. J. when he returns.)

Mar. 1—Shorty goes to Buffalo to attend a children's "hide the peanuts" birthday party.

Mar. 2—N. J. (looking at picture of St. Luke's board): "If Tilson is treasurer of St. Luke's, I'm fit to be the Pope."

Mar. 3—Shorty returns with a lovely new pencil-box, which he got as a prize in the game of Lotto at the party. He tells Minnie that he ate two ladyfingers and a whole plate of vanilla ice-cream, and didn't even have to take medicine. My, but how we do grow up!

Mar. 4—Agora-Forum debate won by the Agora. Marshall loses, in spite of his argument by confusion.

Mar. 5—Ed, Thunder, Pus, and Bird leave us for good.

Mar. 6—Tuck tells Frank that if they keep on firing fellows up here he's going to resign from the Faculty.

Mar. 7—Class of 1913 returns for reunion, much to Doc Rob's dismay.

Mar. 8—Wilcox (slipping on ice during fire-drill): "In case of fire use Weed chains."

Mar. 9—School not the same place without Pus and Bird calling "Come seben, come 'leben," and Thunder yelling "Aw shoot, I'll betcher million."

Mar. 10—Smoke and Stu do their French translation for the first time this year, and Mr. Hering attributes it to his yesterday's chapel talk on "Preparedness."

Mar. 11—Uncle Joe opens up golf season by breaking course record. (57 minutes-11 seconds, in skiddy weather, and two new bunkers to leap over, is almost unbelievable!)

Mar. 12—Supply of coal almost gives out, and it is suggested to tear down Bissell and use it as tinder.

Mar. 13—Flood in locker-room, caused by Kelsey, Cooke, and Marshall going in pool at same time.

Mar. 15—Ev. Woollen elected president of class for Spring term; Stu, vice-president; Colonel Lasell, secretary; and Cat Smith, treasurer.

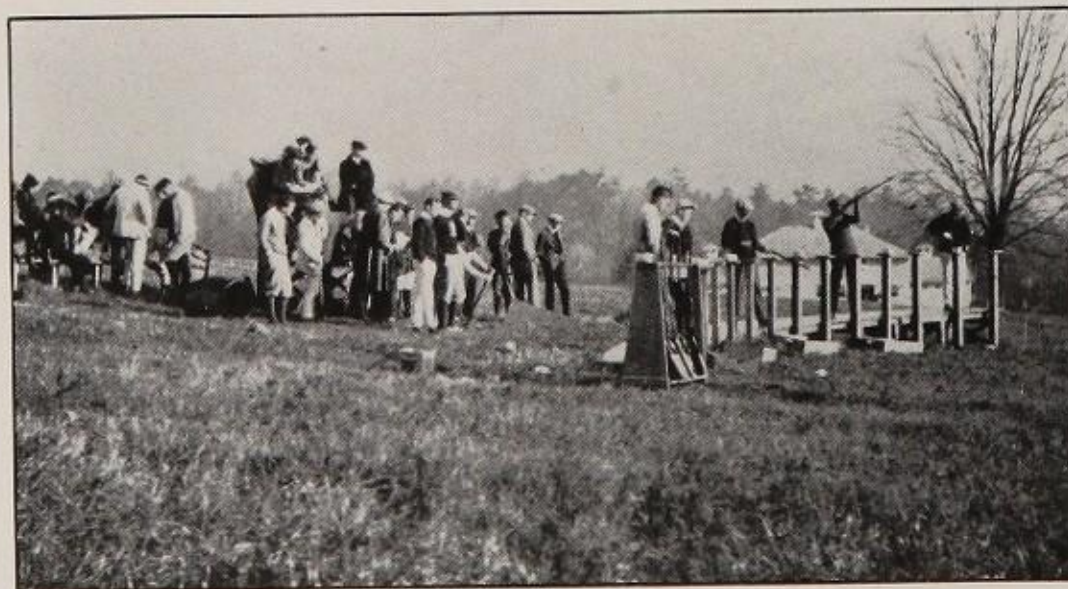

Mar. 17—We all leave for vacation—some of us not to return.

Mar. 22—We hear rumors of Dan and Hix tearing it off nights in the Wononsco House grill.

Spring Term

Mar. 28—All back for the last lap, Wamba included. Hix and Dan tell us of the wonderful times Lakeville affords during vacation.

Mar. 29—Baseball and track candidates called out, and Brem Peck decides to try for team. Fluff and Freedman, the original human jelly fish, go out for the mile. At least, they have soft places to sit on when they get tired.

Mar. 30—Ice begins to break up, and Dutch tries on his bathing-suit.

Mar. 31—Entire school daffy on question of knickerbockers; even Spindle-shanks Hoyt considers getting a pair.

Apr. 1—Musical Arts goes on wild trip to N. Y. We always expected it of a confirmed and confessed snake like Greene, but when it comes to Itch Herron and Pretty Kiser——!!

Apr. 2—"The Devil in Chapel" gives Dr. Buehler quite a lot of trouble. He tries to catch N. J.'s eye, but the Peril presents a bold front.

Apr. 3—Class votes to donate 25c to Joe so that he can call up Rosemary himself, and not pester our girls with messages.

Apr. 4—Mr. Banghart, long suspected of being a hyphenated American, gives himself away by talking in his sleep.

Apr. 5—Fire alarm goes off at 1 a. m. This greatly amuses Doc Rob and Hute.

Apr. 6—Tennis courts need rolling, and, roller being broken, Wilcox volunteers.

Apr. 7—Private Lasell receives his Plattsburg uniform, and begins to think that we might as well not go to war with Germany, after all. Joe would rather be a live coward than a dead hero, think some.

Apr. 9—Beauty of chapel service greatly increased by organ being played so loud that choir can't be heard.

Apr. 10—Mr. Spencer: "Andy what's a rush candle?"

Andy: "Why, a candle that's made in a hurry, I guess."

Apr. 11—Misch board begs, coaxes, and threatens cringing student-body into signing up for extraordinary number of Mischianzas.

Apr. 12—It's a rainy Friday, and Mac, the old pessimist, thinks it's great.

Apr. 13—Hix gets captaincy of track team thrust upon him, and with the inspiration of a new leader, the sprinters manage to do the hundred in 11-5.

Apr. 14—Bloat gets out of infirmary with three new chins, caused by loose skin left by the mumps swellings.

Apr. 15—Game with New Haven High cancelled and baseball squad goes to ville en masse, but Tessie spoils the fun by appearing unexpectedly at the "Hub." Hotch pleads innocence, and gets away with it, but Daddy's mouth is so full of food that he can't speak in self-defence.

Apr. 16—New "movies" rule and Wilcox's going out for baseball leaves Kelsey out of a job. Kisser tells him to train Houghtaling to take Feet's place, but Hute declines, saying that it's bad for us to laugh all the time.

Apr. 17—Johnny Hamline turns up sans mumps, sans boils, sans money.

Apr. 18—Mr. Hancock loses his keys and reports it to the King who, knowing Luce's reputation, immediately suspects him—Luce, however, sobbingly states that he has turned straight since the time he pulled that dirty job on the "Misch", getting away with their pictures.

Apr. 19—Pittsfield High calls off ball game. They had Manager Herron bulldozed, anyhow, because he thought all along that they were really coming.

Apr. 20—Because of diphtheria in Lakeville, Mr. Estill forbids us to come into close contact with any of the young folk of the village.—Hard luck, Clarke!

Apr. 21—Fargo, the devil (quoting scripture) "It would be as easy for Tilson to go to heaven as for Cooke to go thru the eye of a needle."

Apr. 22—Stu and Mac hold "open house" from 9 to 10:30 p. m., but not because they want to. Snooks goes to N. Y. to get some bay-rum rubbed on his bald spot.

Apr. 24—Upper Mids, 8; Seniors, 1. Considering the athletes who represented us on the diamond, it's a wonder the score wasn't 1008 to 1.

Apr. 25—Dan mistakes moon for Zepelin and telephones good-bye to Westover.

Apr. 26—Dr. Buehler pulls big surprise by giving us a holiday.

Apr. 27—The Upper Mids insult the Senior ball team by playing without any outfielders, saying that they are unnecessary against the Seniors.

Apr. 28—Plattsburg Lasell goes to infirmary to get inoculated against typhoid. Doc Bissell says he put in 5,000,000 germs, but Joe swears he counted 5,000,003.

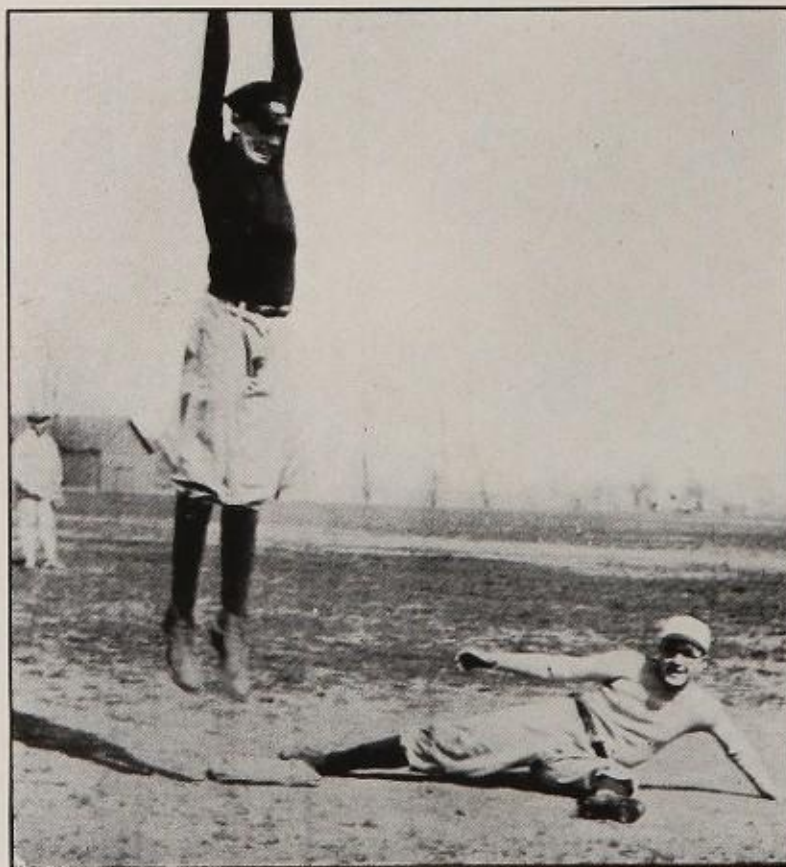

Apr. 29—Yale 2nd, 5—Hotchkiss, 1.

Apr. 30—Wilcox, with one foot on first base, grubs in right field for the ball.

May 1—Several fellows go to infirmary with bad cases of contagious Herron. (If the meaning of this is too obscure, look at Herron's nicknames).

May 2—Shorty, in knickers, mistaken for Francis Robinson, much to Pharis' delight.

May 3—Dr. Grenfell honors us, and Dr. Goddard tries to make a pinch hit, but strikes at a wide one.

May 4—King points out difference between a sail-canoe, a canoe with a sail, and a sailing canoe, giving concrete examples of each.

May 5—Smoke says he's going to New York, but Breth swears he's off to Berlin to join the German army.

May 6—Upper Mid-Dance,—but automobiles are more popular than the dance floor.

May 7—Henry, walking along corridor, doesn't look where he's stepping, and gives Knox a nose-bleed.

May 8—Art Warwick, made dizzy by Dr. Buehler's rapid praying, slips off seat of organ onto keyboard, making noise like a Ford in first speed.

May 9—Taylor writes us that he's taking a bath once a week now, whether he needs it or not.

May 10—Meldrum tries to find out Cooke's recipe for growing chins, but the latter refuses to tell the secret.

May 11—Mr. Gregory celebrates his birthday—long live the Pope!

May 12—Crazy Greek division assembles in shower-room at 6.55½ (by Hincks' stop-watch) and argues for fifty minutes whether to take a cold or a cold shower. The Driscolls argue with each other, because nobody else can understand them, and Hadden wakes up people in the village with his raucous voice.

May 14—Some alumni who still love us win us a holiday. Pawling beats us, 14 to 7. We get third place in the Yale Interscholastics, thanks to Hix, Burt, Heinie, Henry, Ev, and Schnapps.

May 15—Kisser: "Can we put this picture of Cat Smith in the Misch for the most energetic fellow in the class?"

Snook: "It doesn't look like him."

Kisser: "It isn't he, but I thought it would do."

May 16—Shorty and Don both pass Ancient History, which ought to convince Mr. Hall that he's some teacher. Orchestra gives fine concert.

May 17—Jeff tells Josh that Brine's "Sofner" is the best shaving-cream he has ever used.

Why worry along trying to "pick up" a knowledge of Mandolin, Guitar or Banjo unassisted when a course of instruction on same under a competent teacher will accomplish results in one-tenth of the time? Then when you try for a place on the school or college club, you will not fail through clumsy style or unmusical efforts. An early start insures success.

The Highest Choice

DO not let it be merely a question of initial cost when you make your choice of pianos. The matchless music of the Steinway has lifted it above the "price" atmosphere for all time.

It is true, the Steinway does cost a little more. But no one who owns a Steinway has ever a shadow of regret for the price paid. It is but little higher than the cost of other pianos, and the Steinway carries within its perfect mechanism the guarantee of a satisfaction beyond all price.

For more than three-score years it has been the ideal of the greatest music masters of their day. So the Steinway must command your respectful attention before your choice is made.

What "The Best of Everything" Means in R'y. Travel

West and Northwest via. Chicago & North Western Railway

All trains arrive at and depart from the magnificent new Chicago Passenger Terminal—the most modern railway station in the world.

You travel over a heavily rock-ballasted, double-tracked roadbed, equipped with extra heavy steel rails, insuring smooth, even riding and a restful trip. The latest type of automatic electric signals guard your safety all the way.

You have a wide choice of frequent fast trains with schedules providing convenient hours of arrival and departure.

The route lies through the best developed and richest industrial and agricultural district in the West—often referred to as the granary of the world.

Deliciously cooked meals served by efficient attendants in Dining Cars of the most modern type.

Equipment of the highest grade is included in this service.

The Day's Reward--

HOME BILLIARDS

With the smooth balls glistening in the early lamp-light—with lessons learned, business done and a good meal stowed away—all hands are eager for a rousing round of carom or pocket billiards.

One chance shot—a droll remark—a hair's breadth hit—any of these may decide tonight's victory! This thrilling game puts new blood into hard-worked men—and keeps boys home at last!

Superb Brunswick "Baby Grand"

"Grand," "Convertibles" and
"Quick Demountables," $27 Upward

Brunswick Home Carom and Pocket Billiard Tables, made of beautiful woods, appeal to the expert as well as the novice because they are scientifically built.

So don't confuse them with toys or flimsy contraptions. Every Brunswick is a real man's table, though made in sizes to fit in any home.

Free Trial—Then 10c a Day

Test any Brunswick in your own home 30 days free! Then pay us only a small amount monthly—as little as 10 cents a day. Our prices are low because we are making for thousands—now $27 upward.

Playing Outfit Given

Hand-tapered Cues, Balls, Rack, Markers, Expert Book of 49 games, etc.—a complete high-class Playing Outfit included free.

Now see these handsome tables in actual colors and get full details in our famous book—"Billiards—The Home Magnet." A postal brings it free postpaid. Send for it today!

Your College Exams.

If you are preparing for college entrance examinations and should require special preparation for certain of them, you will find in the ROSENBAUM SCHOOL instruction which is first, last, and always efficient. . . At New Haven, during the months of July, August and September, a limited number of pupils will be received.

For those desiring a more thorough grounding in the elements required for a foundation for college work, the School at Milford, from October to June, is recommended.

Every pupil enrolled in the ROSENBAUM SCHOOL has entered college successfully, and, once entered, has consistently maintained a creditable stand in his studies. There is every reason to believe that this record will be maintained in the future.
